ACTON W3

BOOKBINDER POINT

THE LATEST CHAPTER IN ACTON'S REBIRTH

Setting the bar for contemporary city living, Bookbinder Point is a stunning development of 98 immaculately designed one and two bedroom apartments.

Rising up 16 floors, it's been designed to cater to all the demands of modern life – boasting the best in interior design, spacious layouts, a daytime concierge and an elegant roof garden. It's also perfectly located to take advantage of all this leafy corner of London has to offer, as well as Acton's superb transport links, including Crossrail.

CROSSRAIL HAS TRANSFORMED LONDON'S PROPERTY LANDSCAPE

More connected to Central London than ever before, all eyes are on Acton's regeneration.

Sandwiched between the popular residential areas of Chiswick and Ealing, it's no surprise that Acton is fulfilling its untapped potential. Enjoying the same amount of greenery as its neighbours, it's now stepping out of their shadows and fast becoming one of London's most sought-after districts.

Crossrail is fuelling much of this change. Building on Acton's already superb rail and road connections, it's been the trigger for a wave of regeneration and investment that's transforming the area. Add to this, the value for money this sleeping giant offers and there's no question that west is best for anyone looking to buy or invest.

THE START OF SOMETHING IMPRESSIVE

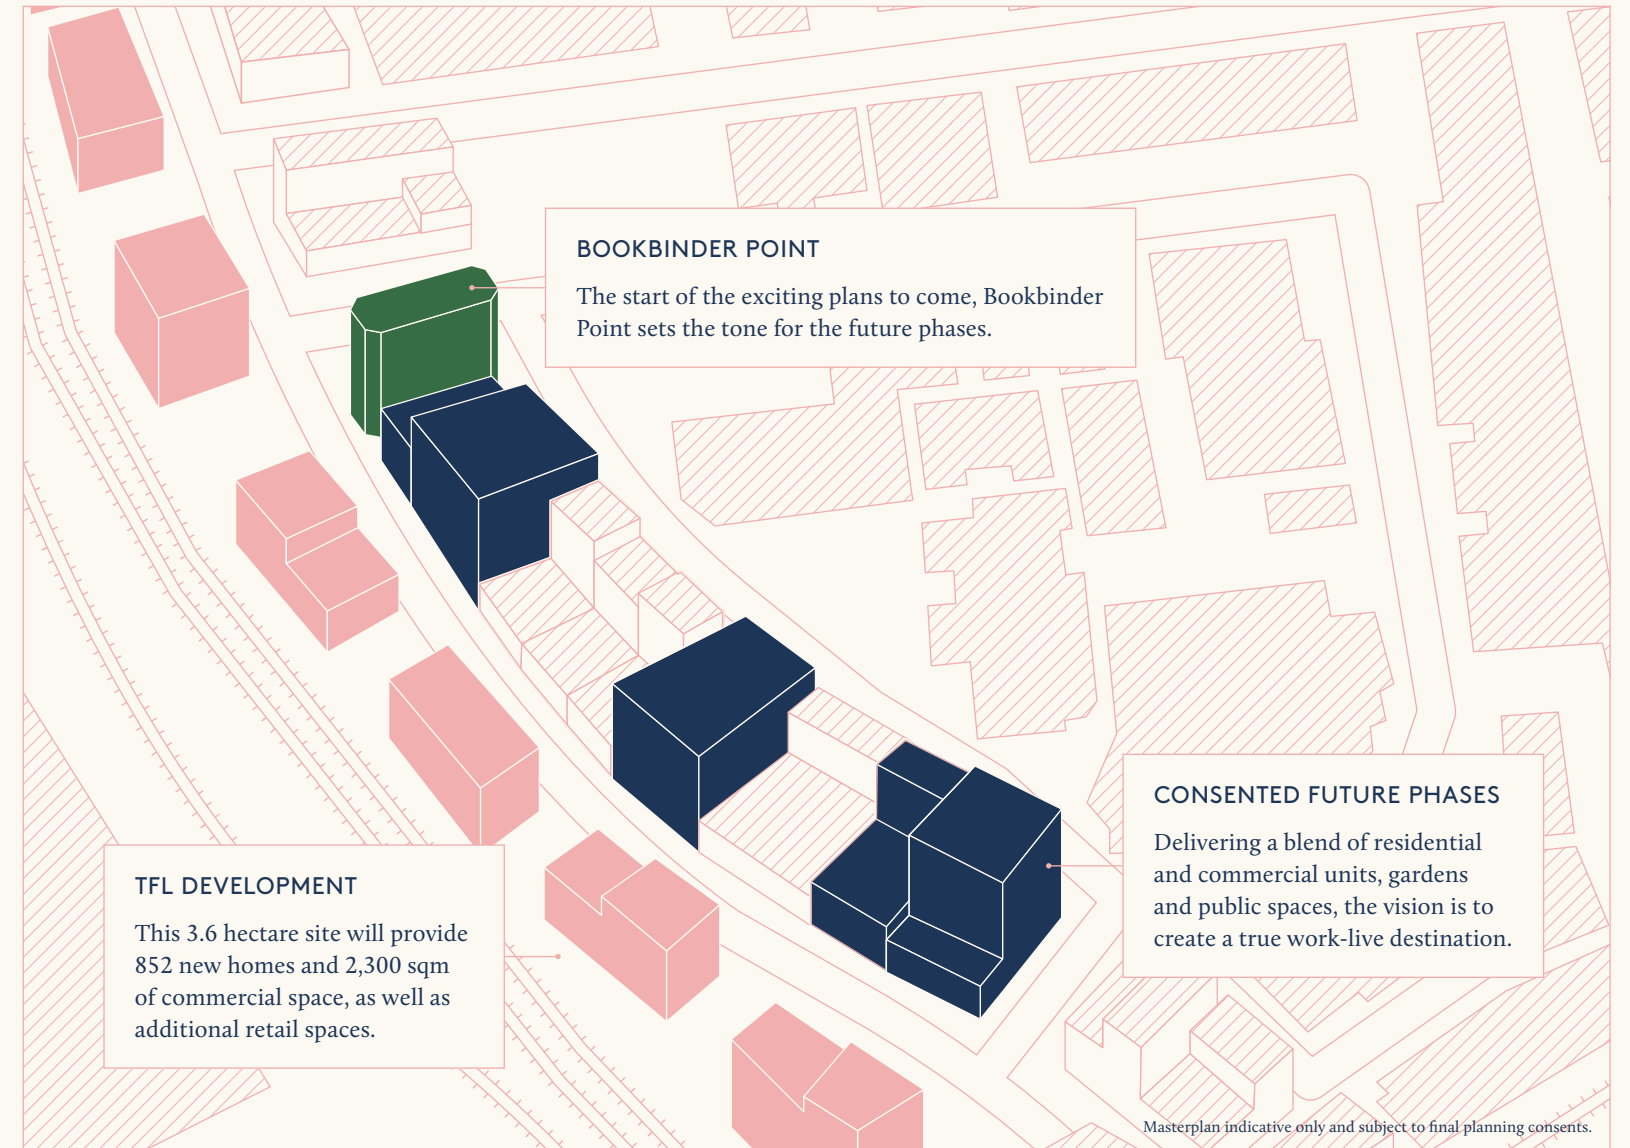

Bookbinder Point is the first phase in the transformation of Bollo Lane.

Acting as an elegant bookend, the subsequent phases will see a similar residential scheme at the other end of the block, with an array of mixed use spaces in between. Key to the vision is the creation of a true work-live environment, to ensure that the area is thriving and alive at all times of the day.

It's envisaged that the commercial occupants are likely to be more creatively focused businesses – design agencies, artists, ceramists and so on. Alongside these there'll be space for the capital's growing freelance community. For our residents, this means their commute could be as simple as a lift ride downstairs.

IDEALLY LOCATED FOR WORK AND PLEASURE

An escape from Central London, that's conveniently just moments from it, Acton is rapidly establishing itself as one of London's property hotspots – taking its place alongside its coveted neighbours, Chiswick, Kew and Ealing.

THE PERFECT START TO ANY JOURNEY

Acton has always been well connected, the arrival of Crossrail is making it even more so.

Spanning the capital, Crossrail is transforming this green West London suburb into a residential hotspot, that's 9 minutes from Bond Street's boutiques and 16 minutes from Liverpool Street and The City's gleaming towers.

The nearest Crossrail station, Acton Main Line is just a 9 minute cycle from Bookbinder Point. Slightly nearer, at a 5 minute walk away is Acton Town, which puts the District and Piccadilly lines at your disposal. Or for London Overground services you can head to South Acton (9 minute walk).

In short, wherever you start your journey, with Bookbinder Point's connectivity, your destination is only moments away. Even if you're escaping the capital and heading to far-flung shores, you can get to Heathrow's terminals in as little as 19 minutes by taxi or 25 by tube.

ALL YOU NEED TO LIVE WELL

Moments from Acton town centre, Bookbinder Point puts all your essentials on your doorstep.

From supermarkets for your weekly shop and places to grab a drink or a bite to eat with friends, to leisure centres and gyms to keep in shape, it's all here waiting to be discovered. You're also close to the Thames and countless parks for when you just want to escape London life.

Kew Gardens

Gunnersbury Park

THE NATURAL CHOICE FOR A HOME IN LONDON

West London's greenery is without question one of its finest attributes.

Boasting some of the capital's finest parks, many of which are the grounds of former stately homes, this corner of West London is greener than most. Once part of the private country estate of Princess Amelia, daughter of George II, Gunnersbury Park's Grade II* listed parkland blends formal gardens and tranquil lakes with outstanding sports facilities.

The world-famous Kew Gardens are just across the Thames. Home to 50,000 living plants, this UNESCO World Heritage site is a marvel of nature. Or there's Syon Park, owned by the same family for over 400 years, the house is home to a wealth of art and antiquities, while the gardens offer a taste of the countryside without leaving London.

Right: Syon Park

FORGET THE WEST END, YOU HAVE WESTFIELD

Dwarfing its Stratford namesake by over 50,000 sqft, Westfield London is the capital's true retail destination.

A short trip on the underground puts 289 shops, 90 restaurants and a 20 screen cinema at your fingertips. As well as a who's who of popular brands, The Village at Westfield London's sumptuous surroundings are home to more than 40 designer labels, ranging from Louis Vuitton and Prada, to Burberry and De Beers.

Closer to home, Acton has all your essentials covered, with a Sainsbury's Local just a 7 minute walk. Acton's high street and The Oak shopping centre are also less than a mile from Bookbinder Point.

Alternatively, for more relaxed and picturesque shopping, Chiswick and Richmond are the perfect destinations, with a host of cafes and restaurants complementing their array of boutiques.

LONDON'S NEW COMMERCIAL CAPITAL

While Central London's business districts are easy to reach, West London is a commercial hub of its own.

The transformation of West London goes way beyond its transport and retail upgrades. Chiswick Park, just to the south of Bookbinder Point, is a lakeside business park that hosts 1.8 million sqft of Global, European and National headquarters – including the likes of Starbucks, Danone, Ericsson and Paramount.

The area's film and television credentials are continued with the BBC's Television Centre at White City and Sky's campus in Isleworth. A further supporting cast of entertainment related businesses are dotted throughout the area.

There are also an array of industry hubs for IT, pharmaceuticals, transport and logistics and financial services. While easy access to the Golden Mile's 450 businesses, including GlaxoSmithKline, JCDecaux and WorleyParsons, which employ some 24,000 people is another huge plus.

A FIRST CLASS EDUCATION

Enjoy easy access to London's world-renowned universities.

Bookbinder Point's superb transport links mean that all of London's universities are readily accessible. You needn't go far to embrace the opportunities at the new 25-acre Imperial College London campus at White City though.

This state-of-the-art £3 billion complex, was created in partnership with China's Zhejiang University to enhance transnational entrepreneurship and is set to boost the Chinese student population by c.40-50%.

Bookbinder Point is a marketing name and may not form part of the development's address. These particulars are not considered to be a formal offer, they are for information purposes only and to provide an overview of the property. They are not taken as forming any part of a resulting contract, nor to be relied upon as statements or representations of fact. Whilst every care has been taken in their preparation, no liability can be accepted for their inaccuracy. All travel times and distances mentioned are approximate and for guidance only. Sources: tfl.gov.uk, crossrail.co.uk & google.co.uk/maps. All illustrative maps are not to scale and for guidance only rather than accurate representations of distance and exact locations. Intending purchasers must satisfy themselves as to the correctness of these particulars which are issued on the understanding that all negotiations are conducted through the developer or their agent. These particulars are believed to be correct at the time of issue and any areas, measurements or dimensions referred to are indicative only and have been taken from architect's current drawings which may be subject to change during the course of construction. In view of continuing improvements policy the detailed specification and/or layouts may change. CGIs are artist's impressions and indicative of finished product. Some items are optional extras and are not included.
